Hey baby, do you remember when I told you
I wouldn't give you more than you could hold?
I wasn't lying, I wasn't lying to you baby.
I'm the one in control, you're the one that I'm holding,
I'll take your burdens on my shoulders and carry us on.

And in time, I'll let you in on everything I'm planning.
When it's time, I'll let you see everything you're asking me.
When it's time, you will know why there are things I'm hiding from you.
But I'm gonna satisfy everything in the meantime.

Hey baby, do you remember when I said that
I would give you more than you could ever ask or imagine?
I wasn't playing, I wasn't playing with you baby.
I'm the one in control, you're the one that I'm holding,
I'll take your burdens on my shoulders and carry us on.

And in time, I'll let you in on everything I'm planning.
When it's time, I'll let you see everything you're asking me.
When it's time, you will know why there are things I'm hiding from you.
But I'm gonna satisfy everything in the meantime.
